Unique Aspects of Greece's Engagement with UNCSW and Gender Equality

- Comprehensive Legal Framework: Greece firmly stands by gender equality, a principle that's woven into its Constitution. It guarantees equal rights for both men and women and requires the government to actively work towards making those rights a reality.
- Institutional Mechanisms: The General Secretariat for Demographic and Family Policy and Gender Equality (GSDFPGE) along with the Research Centre for Gender Equality (KETHI) play a vital role in advancing gender equality in Greece.
- Gender Mainstreaming Approach: Greece is taking significant steps to promote gender equality through legal measures, aiming to weave gender perspectives into a variety of policy areas.

- Challenges in Gender Equality: Despite some advancements, Greece still grapples with hurdles in reaching gender equality, as its scores in the Gender Equality Index fall short of the EU average.
 - Active Participation in UNCSW: Greece is a consistent participant in UNCSW sessions, where it submits national reviews, makes statements, and takes part in side events to exchange best practices and learn from other countries.
 - Commitment to International Frameworks: Greece is committed to aligning its national policies with international agreements, including the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) and the Beijing Platform for Action.
