Unique Aspects of Lebanon's UNCSW Engagement and Gender Agenda

- Intersection of Gender Equality and Refugee Crisis: Lebanon's commitment to gender equality is closely tied to its efforts in supporting displaced women and girls, particularly Syrian refugees. This focus is a distinctive feature in the discussions at UNCSW.
- Active Role of Women in Peacebuilding: Lebanese women's networks have been crucial in driving peace and security initiatives, closely aligning with the UNCSW's emphasis on women, peace, and security.
- Legal Reforms Toward Gender-Based Violence: Lebanon has made strides by enacting laws that tackle domestic violence and personal status issues, reflecting a shift in its legal landscape.
- Regional Collaboration via Arab Women's Organization: Lebanon plays a significant role in regional gender equality initiatives that are coordinated by UN Women's office for the Arab States.
- Prominent Civil Society Involvement: Lebanon's dynamic women's NGOs play a crucial role in shaping discussions at the UNCSW and driving local policy changes.
