Unique Aspect	Explanation
Low Female Representation in Parliament	As of February 2024, just 3.9% of the seats in Nigeria's parliament are occupied by women, which really underscores the urgent need for greater political involvement from women.
High Prevalence of Child Marriage	It's concerning that 30.3% of women between the ages of 20 and 24 were married or in a union before they even turned 18. This really sheds light on the difficulties we face in protecting the rights of girls.
Significant Gender Data Gaps	As of December 2020, only 46.7% of the indicators necessary for monitoring the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) from a gender perspective were available.
Efforts in Women's Economic Empowerment	UN Women is all about championing affirmative procurement policies and laws that uplift women-owned businesses in Nigeria.
Implementation of National Gender Policy	Nigeria has put together some solid strategies, including monitoring and evaluation frameworks, to effectively carry out its National Gender Policy.
Participation in UNCSW Sessions	Nigeria plays an active role in UNCSW sessions, where it shares national statements and aligns its policies with the global push for gender equality.
Challenges in Gender Equality	Nigeria sits at a concerning 181 out of 193 countries on the Gender Equality Index, highlighting the persistent hurdles we face in reaching true gender parity.
Focus on Women's Leadership and Political Participation	UN Women Nigeria is all about boosting women's leadership and getting them more involved in politics through a range of programs.
Addressing Gender-Based Violence	Initiatives are in place to combat gender-based violence, including legal reforms and support services for survivors.
Integration of Gender Perspectives in National Policies	Nigeria is making a concerted effort to weave gender considerations into its national development plans and policies, taking a comprehensive approach to achieving gender equality.
