

SCOTLAND

Model UN Research Dossier: Scotland (Constituent Country of the UK)

1. Key Country Details Table

Detail	Information
Full Name	Scotland (Constituent Country of the United Kingdom)
Short Form	Scotland
Capital	Edinburgh
Region (UN)	Western Europe and Other Group (WEOG)
Government Type	Devolved Parliamentary Government within the UK
Head of State	King Charles III
Head of Government	First Minister John Swinney
Currency	Pound Sterling (GBP)
UN Member Since	Not a UN member state (represented via the UK)
MUN Standing	Generally aligns with the UK but has independent policy nuances on health, education, and climate. Delegates may simulate Scottish positions on devolved matters.

Book Recommendations on Scotland's Foreign Policy and Global Engagement

1. "Scotland's Foreign Policy Footprint" by David Torrance
2. "The Case for Scottish Independence: A History of Nationalist Political Thought in Modern Scotland" by Ben Jackson
3. "Scottish Nationalism and the Idea of Europe" by Atsuko Ichijo
4. "Independence of Scotland: Self-Government and the Shifting Politics of Union" by Michael Keating

5. "The Scottish Government Yearbook" (multiple annual editions, policy-focused)

Scotland & Gender Equality: Verified Resource Table

Resource Title	Link	Description
Gender Representation on Public Boards (Scotland) Act 2018	Legislation.gov.uk	This Act aims to improve the representation of women on public boards in Scotland, setting a gender representation objective for non-executive members.
Gender Recognition Reform (Scotland) Bill	Scottish Parliament	Proposes changes to the process of obtaining a Gender Recognition Certificate in Scotland, aiming to simplify and streamline the procedure.
Period Poverty Costs Too Much, Take Action to End It	UN Women	Highlights Scotland's pioneering role in providing free period products, addressing period poverty and promoting menstrual equity.
Rape Crisis Scotland	Rape Crisis Scotland	A national organization offering support to survivors of sexual violence and working to end sexual violence through advocacy and education.
Gender Equality Protection in the Contexts of Bodily Integrity and Reproductive Rights	UN Women Report	Analyzes constitutional protections related to gender equality, focusing on bodily integrity and reproductive rights, with references to the UK context.
Orange the World Campaign	UN Women	A global campaign to end violence against women and girls, with participation from various countries, including initiatives in Scotland.

Unique Aspects of Scotland's Engagement with Gender Equality and UNCSW Agenda

- Legislative Initiatives: Scotland has taken a bold step forward with laws like the Gender Representation on Public Boards (Scotland) Act 2018, which aims to create a more balanced representation of genders in leadership roles within the public sector.
 - Gender Recognition Reform: The Gender Recognition Reform (Scotland) Bill aims to make it easier for people to legally change their gender, showcasing Scotland's dedication to supporting transgender rights.
 - Menstrual Equity: Scotland made history by becoming the first country to offer free period products to everyone, tackling period poverty head-on and recognizing menstrual health as a vital human rights issue.
 - Support for Survivors of Sexual Violence: Organizations such as Rape Crisis Scotland are vital in providing support to survivors and pushing for important changes in the system to help prevent sexual violence.
 - Alignment with International Frameworks: Scotland's policies and initiatives are in sync with global commitments, like the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) and the Beijing Platform for Action.
-