Unique Aspects of Estonia's UNHRC Engagement

1. E-government pioneer: Estonia is at the forefront of using AI in public services, which brings up important discussions about fairness and transparency.

2. Digital rights champion: As the second country in the world for internet freedom and the chair of the Freedom Online Coalition, Estonia is committed to promoting a free and open internet for everyone.
 3. Strong child rights follow-through: CRC observations calling for better child protection frameworks.
 4. Proactive AI oversight: The Estonian Ombudsperson is keeping a close eye on how AI is being used in public governance.
 5. Refugee integration model: A strong response from UNHCR is supporting Ukrainian refugees, who make up over 3% of the population.
 6. Stateless population / minority education rights: Stateless ethnic Russians make up about 5%, and there's a contentious ban on minority languages.
 7. Roma inclusion efforts: Formal national integration policies recognized by the UN focus.
 8. Privacy protections under scrutiny: Metadata retention laws flagged by international privacy NGOs.
