Unique Aspects of Germany's UNHRC Engagement

1. Global refugee leader: Hosting around 1.2 million refugees and making a global impact.
2. Judicial check on asylum restrictions: Courts have declared that the recent practice of turning back migrants at the border is illegal.
3. Biometric surveillance controversy: Worries about data privacy and facial recognition are on the rise.
4. Strong digital freedom: Yet, Germany faces challenges from increased state surveillance.
5. Rise in far-right hate crimes: It's been reported that there's a troubling rise in violence against migrants and minorities.
6. Transparency in UPR: Germany makes its UPR submissions and input from civil society available to the public.
7. Child rights compliance: Germany has seen through repeated CRC reviews that there are still significant concerns regarding child protection.
8. Political shift in refugee welfare: Coalition discussions about restricting the rights of Ukrainian refugees.
