Unique Aspects of Argentina at UNCSW

Aspect	Description
Strong Feminist Movement Influence	Argentina's feminist movements, particularly the "Ni Una Menos" campaign, have a significant impact on the agendas of the UNCSW, especially when it comes to addressing gender-based violence and advocating for women's rights.
Pioneering Gender Identity Law	Argentina was one of the trailblazers in the world when it came to enacting progressive laws that acknowledge gender identity, showcasing its commitment to LGBTQ+ rights as part of its UNCSW obligations.
Comprehensive National Gender Plan	The National Gender Equality Plan brings together efforts for economic empowerment, violence prevention, and political participation, all in line with the priorities set by the UN Commission on the Status of Women.
Active Participation in Regional Gender Bodies	Argentina takes a prominent position in the Inter-American Commission of Women and other regional organizations that align with the goals of the UN Commission on the Status of Women.

Focus on Women in Rural and Indigenous Communities	Argentina is putting a spotlight on gender equality for rural and indigenous women, which is a crucial topic in the discussions at UNCSW.
Implementation of UNSCR 1325	Argentina's National Action Plan highlights the crucial role of women in promoting peace and security, particularly in regions affected by internal conflicts.
Economic Empowerment Through Inclusive Policies	Argentina is putting their energy into closing the gender pay gaps and boosting women's entrepreneurship in fields that have typically been dominated by men.
Addressing Gender-Based Violence with Legal Reforms	Argentina has made significant strides in bolstering its legal frameworks to combat domestic violence and femicide, which are crucial topics on the UNCSW agenda.
Integration of Gender in Climate Policy	Argentina is weaving gender perspectives into its climate change adaptation and sustainability policies.
COVID-19 Gender Impact Focus	Argentina has been actively researching and implementing policies to tackle the ways the pandemic has hit women harder, particularly in terms of their jobs, safety, and access to healthcare.
