Unique Aspects of the Czech Republic's Engagement with UNCSW and Gender Equality

- Legislative Framework: The Czech Republic firmly stands by its commitment to gender equality, a principle that's woven into its Constitution. This dedication is further reinforced by the Anti-discrimination Act of 2009, which lays down a solid legal framework to combat gender-based discrimination.
- Gender Pay Gap Initiative: The Czech Republic has taken a proactive role in addressing the gender pay gap, bringing the issue to the forefront at UNCSW 2023 and advocating for pay transparency measures.
- Engagement of Men and Boys: The Czech Republic has played a key role in encouraging men and boys to step up as allies in the fight against violence towards women. They've been actively organizing side events and discussions during the UNCSW sessions to foster this important dialogue.

- Active Participation in UNCSW Sessions: The Czech Republic is a regular participant in UNCSW sessions, where it submits national reviews, shares statements, and ensures its policies are in line with global gender equality goals.
 - Integration of Gender Perspectives in Policy: The Czech Republic is making strides in promoting gender equality by weaving these goals into various policy areas like employment, education, and health. This ensures a well-rounded approach to empowering women.
 - Promotion of Women's Rights through Civil Society: Civil society organizations in the Czech Republic are crucial in championing women's rights and promoting gender equality. They work hand in hand with the government to put effective measures into action.
