Unique Aspects of Finland's Engagement with UNCSW and Gender Equality

- Pioneer in Women's Political Rights: Finland made history in 1906 by becoming the first country in the world to give women the right to vote and to run for election.
- High Representation of Women in Politics: As of recent years, 47% of Finnish Members of Parliament are women, and about 60% of government ministers are women, the highest in Finland's history.
- Strong Legal Framework for Gender Equality: Finland's Equality Act requires that all organizations actively promote gender equality in a systematic way, ensuring that gender perspectives are woven into every decision-making process.

- Active Participation in UNCSW: Finland is a consistent participant in UNCSW sessions, where it submits national reviews, makes statements, and takes part in side events to exchange best practices and learn from other countries.
 - Focus on Economic Equality and Women's Rights in Conflict Areas: Finland places a strong focus on economic equality and the rights of women in conflict zones, making sure to bring these important topics to the forefront during UNCSW sessions.
 - Commitment to Gender Equality in Development Cooperation: Finland is setting an ambitious goal: by 2025, they want 85% of all new development projects to prioritize gender equality as a key or primary focus.
