Unique Aspects of Ukraine at UNCSW

Aspect	Description
Conflict Impact on Women	The ongoing conflict with Russia has created even more challenges for Ukrainian women, such as displacement, gender-based violence, and obstacles to accessing healthcare and education. This situation has caught the attention of the UN Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW).
Women in Peacebuilding and Security	Ukraine is taking significant steps to put UN Security Council Resolution 1325 into action, focusing on empowering women to take on leadership roles in peace talks and efforts to resolve conflicts.
Humanitarian Gender Responses	Ukraine stands out as a prime example of how to weave gender-sensitive strategies into emergency humanitarian aid, especially during times of conflict and displacement crises.
National Gender Equality Strategy	Ukraine has recently refreshed its National Gender Strategy (2030) to better align with international standards and the Beijing Platform for Action. This update highlights the importance of inclusivity and equal opportunities for all.

Focus on Education and Economic Empowerment	Ukraine is focusing on special initiatives that aim to improve girls' education in conflict zones and create economic opportunities for women, with the support of UN agencies and international partners.
