Unique Aspects: Ukraine in the UNHRC Context

- 1. Commission of Inquiry Mandate in Active Conflict: The Independent International Commission of Inquiry, which has been active since March 2022, is a unique ongoing mechanism under the Human Rights Council. It focuses on investigating violations from wartime, including war crimes and crimes against humanity.
- 2. Regular Interactive Oral Updates: Since 2022, Ukraine has been getting bi-annual oral updates at every Human Rights Council session, which sets it apart from other conflict zones and shows that it's under constant scrutiny.

3. High Civilian Casualty Reporting: The OHCHR monitoring reports indicate that there were more than 12,000 civilian casualties recorded in just two months at the beginning of 2024, which is a key focus for the HRC's accountability agenda.
 4. Mass Displacement & Refugee Impact: Over 8 million Ukrainian refugees have created a significant impact on discussions surrounding humanitarian and migration policies at the HRC.
 5. War Crimes Focus by NGOs: HRW and Amnesty are shining a light on the horrific war crimes committed by Russia, including torture and sexual violence. They're ramping up the pressure for legal action through the Human Rights Council and the International Criminal Court.
 6. Rapid UPR Follow-Up: Ukraine is actively involved in UPR mid-term reporting and is implementing detailed outcomes, much like Serbia—demonstrating a proactive approach to engaging with the UNHRC.
 7. ICC Accession Strategy: Ukraine's decision to ratify the Rome Statute by reforming its Human Rights Council highlights its dedication to international justice systems.
 8. Dual Monitoring via ICC and HRC Mechanisms: Ukraine is under the watchful eye of both a dedicated Commission and the ICC, making it a key example of how the Council and ICC are working together on human rights issues.
 9. Multimedia Evidence Integration: The council sessions and live coverage on UN WebTV provide a direct way to witness audiovisual testimony—it's a contemporary approach used in UNHRC proceedings.
 10. HRC as a Battlefield of Narratives: Ukraine and Russia are actively participating in direct Human Rights Council debates, sending state delegations and providing oral updates. This is setting the stage for some intense narrative battles within the Council.
